Matthew 28:1-8

Brian Lightsey

Matthew 28:1 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. 2 There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. 4 The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. 5 The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. 6 He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. 7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you." 8 So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. (NIV)

■ "Do Not Be Afraid"

The most common command in Scripture is "Fear Not!"

Because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, fear does not have to control my life.

■ "Come and See"

Easter and our Christian faith are rooted in history: Jesus Christ lived, died, and rose again.

Even secular historical sources confirm this.

■ "Go and Tell"

Who can I tell that Jesus Christ is alive and wants to meet them?
